Cruise Canada New England Alliance

Working together to promote the Canada New England region as a premier cruise holiday destination

The Cruise Canada New England (CCNE) Alliance was created to develop and market the Canada New England cruise region as a premier cruise holiday destination, offering cruise visitors from around the world superior hospitality, unique activities, diverse destinations, and authentic local experiences that are appealing to families, adventure enthusiasts, and everyone in between.

The CCNE Alliance consists of five unique and diverse cruise partners: NYCruise, Flynn Cruiseport Boston, Cruise Maine USA, Cruise Atlantic Canada, and Cruise the Saint Lawrence. Together, they represent more than 100 large, medium and small ports of call, as well as Canada New England's primary homeports in three U.S. states, five Canadian provinces, and one French colony.

Over the next 10 years, the organization will be working to enhance and market the region, both domestically and internationally, making the Canada New England region a leading, year-round cruise destination, welcoming dozens of international cruise lines, hundreds of cruise ship calls, and more than one million satisfied cruise visitors every year.

Years of joint collaboration have produced superior results. In 2016, cruise lines made a total of 1322 ship calls at member ports of the Cruise Canada New England Alliance, bringing 2.4 million guests who embarked, disembarked, or made port-of-call visits to this unique, historic, and beautiful region.

Montréal

With its European charm and cool urban vibe, Montréal is an international hub in the heart of North America. Home to a multicultural community of 3.7 million, the best sights in the city — from the quaint cobblestone streets of Old Montréal to the bustling downtown core — are within walking distance of the Montréal Cruise Terminal. Take a walk up Mount Royal in the heart of the city. Stroll around the various boutiques, malls and art galleries. Take in an exhibition at one of the many museums. Visit the world-famous St. Joseph's Oratory and Notre-Dame Basilica. And make sure you don't leave without trying a poutine and other delicious local dishes. With something for everyone and adventure at every turn, Montréal is truly a must-see destination.

INVESTMENTS

The new cruise terminal — a $78 million project — welcomes passengers at ground level to facilitate embarking and disembarking, and the processing of luggage. It also features a landscaped rooftop esplanade, an interpretation centre of port activities and a park leading to the river. A tower observatory will be added to the new infrastructure in 2019.

On the operational side, the new terminal offers direct connection to a wastewater collection system and dockside shore power.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Easily accessible port in the heart of Old Montréal, walking distance to the city's major sights and activities.
- Cruise terminal just 20 minutes away from Montréal-Trudeau Airport.
- Most bilingual city in North America, with a diverse and multicultural community.
- Perfect blend of modern North American culture and classic European charm.
- Dynamic cultural scene with over 100 festivals dedicated to music, food, comedy, fashion and more, every year and every season.
- A wealth of sights and activities to suit every traveller.
- World-famous cuisine.
- A cosmopolitan hub boasting diverse architecture, vibrant neighbourhoods, bustling markets, beautiful parks and terraces, and more.
- Ranked 2nd on Family Vacation Critic's Top 10 Best Cities for Family Vacations.
- Named #1 walking city by National Geographic.
- Ranked #13 on Thrillist: The World's 18 Best Food Cities.
- Celebrating its 375th anniversary in 2017. It is definitely a fun and exciting time to visit.

AWARD

In 2013, the Port of Trois-Rivières was recognized as the port with the Most Improved Port Facilities by the prestigious Cruise Insight Magazine.

Trois-Rivières

Originally a fur trading hub, Trois-Rivières is the second oldest French-speaking city in North America, with a host of sights and activities easily accessible by foot. A stone's throw from the harbour, the town centre hosts numerous festivities and has a beautiful historic district loved by locals and visitors alike. Known as the capital of poetry, discover the old city while reading excerpts from 300 Québec love poems displayed on the city's walls. With stylish boutiques, friendly cafes and bars, and a variety of museums and heritage sites, there's always something new to discover. Living alongside the bustling urban landscape is an abundance of nature and ecotourism activities, including Lac Saint-Pierre, a UNESCO-appointed Biosphere Reserve. Stop by for a warm welcome in the unique and charming city of Trois-Rivières.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS

Inauguration of a marine terminal at the Trois-Rivières Harbourfront Park in 2016.

Opening of the Cogeco Amphitheatre in 2015, with covered seating for 3500 and a grassy area that accommodates 5500.

Québec

You'll fall in love with Québec City at first sight. The stunning architecture of the world-famous Fairmont Le Château Frontenac, idyllic cobblestone streets and unique fortifications tell a captivating story. Strikingly beautiful, it is infused with Euro-American charm, drawing on its rich past while confidently embracing the future. From Old Québec, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, to a diversity of natural wonders just minutes from downtown, Québec City seamlessly combines history, culture and the great outdoors. Take in the museums and art galleries, sample the delicious local cuisine, and enjoy the warm hospitality of the locals. With so much to offer for every mood and taste, it's no wonder Québec City is one of the top tourist destinations in the world.

INVESTMENTS

Creation of a park for cruise ships at pier 22 ($39 million project)

Québec City has recently invested in a new public space beside the Ross Gaudreault Cruise Terminal. Place des Canotiers will become in 2017 the new signature park between the Saint Lawrence and the city.

A growth-generating project for the international cruise ship industry ($89.5 million project)

This growth-generating project involves redesigning and expanding the Ross Gaudreault Cruise Terminal, as well as installing a mobile terminal at Berth #30 in the Estuary sector.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Port of embarkation/disembarkation (open-jaw and round trip) and port of call.
- Two dedicated berths for simultaneous turnaround operations.
- Cruise terminal just 20 minutes from the airport, and walking distance from the quaint streets of Old Québec and Petit-Champlain.
- A food lover's paradise, from trendy local bistros to 5 Diamonds (CAA – AAA) restaurants.
- Breathtaking nature to discover just a few minutes from the terminal, including Montmorency Falls, Île d'Orléans and the Jacques-Cartier River.
- Architectural landmarks and historical sites, including Fairmont Le Château Frontenac and Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré Shrine.
- Warm, authentic local charm and joie de vivre.
- A host of cultural activities, festivals and events, like the Fêtes de la Nouvelle-France.
- In honour of Canada's 150th anniversary in 2017, Québec City will welcome 40 tall ships and host a range of festivities.
- Ranked among the 10 best cities in the U.S. and Canada by Travel + Leisure, and #1 among Canadian destinations.

AWARDS

Saguenay Cruise Port has been awarded prizes in the following category:

Best Port Welcome
(2009, 2012, 2013, 2015)
with a special mention: “Hands down, the best in the world!”

Saguenay

The perfect combination of breathtaking nature and vibrant city life, Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean is one of the most celebrated regions in Québec. Surrounded by three national parks and the Saguenay Fjord, one of the longest fjords in the world, the region offers a multitude of activities and adventures, each more exciting than the last. Hit the waves on a kayak or sailboat, and witness the magical fjord by seaplane or helicopter. Take your pick of museums as you discover the region’s fascinating history. Wander around the bustling boutiques, galleries and cafes, and relive the region’s most important historical events at the world-famous La Fabuleuse show. With something new to discover at every turn, you can’t help but fall for the warm and unique charm of Saguenay.

INVESTMENTS

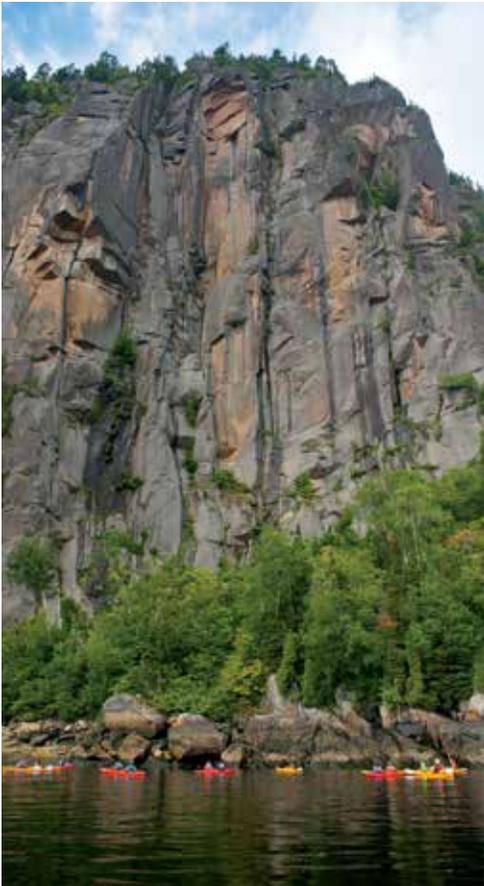

A port village overlooking the Fjord has recently been erected alongside the cruise pavilion, with waterfront promenades, boutiques, cafes and more.

In 2018, Saguenay port of call will build 108 metres of additional floating pontoons and new wave attenuators.

HIGHLIGHTS

- La Fabuleuse, a world-famous show that began 30 years ago, re-enacting the history of the region. More than 100 volunteer actors play over 1000 characters in a visually stunning presentation that will take your breath away!
- The Saguenay Fjord, a unique glacial valley some 100 km long with cliffs towering over 350 metres, is the fourth largest fjord in the world and the southernmost navigable fjord in North America.
- Magnificent Saguenay Fjord National Park offers activities for all interests: sea kayaking, zodiac, via ferrata, hiking, sailing, seaplane and helicopter rides above the fjord.
- With its 75 species, Zoo sauvage of St-Félicien is an amazing wild boreal safari experience. This unique biodiversity zoo is showing the animals in a different setting, no cages, no bars!
- A host of cultural activities, including Fjord museum and aquarium, the famous Little White House, the Arthur Villeneuve exhibition and various Economuseums where artisans showcase their trades.
- Warm and legendary hospitality as soon as you step on the pier. Cruise passengers are greeted by about 50 volunteer actors from La Fabuleuse who entertain them with song and dance.

Corner Brook

As your ship approaches the port of Corner Brook, you'll feel the magic and fall under the spell of Newfoundland and Labrador. The province's raw natural beauty is unlike anywhere else. From stunning coastlines to the geological wonders in Gros Morne National Park, you'll quickly understand why it's known as "The Rock." Indulge your inner adventurer by hiking, rafting or zip lining. Enjoy some quiet time exploring the city's beautiful network of walking trails. Take a glimpse into Corner Brook's unique culture at a local gallery or museum. Enjoy great shopping and restaurants downtown. Treat yourself to cod tongues and partridgeberry tarts for lunch. Before you depart, take the time to meet some of the colourful locals who will love to tell you a "yarn" so good you won't want to leave!

HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience the highest, longest and most exhilarating zip line in Eastern Canada.
- Explore the picturesque city's beautifully groomed walking trails, suitable for visitors of all ages and fitness levels.
- Gros Morne National Park. Walk on the earth's mantle at the Tablelands. Visit Lobster Cove Head Lighthouse, which has guided fishermen safely home for 120 years.
- Follow Captain Cook's trail winding through many fishing villages along the rugged southern coastline of the Bay of Islands.
- Feel the impossibly soft flutter of wings on your skin in the Butterfly Pavilion at the Newfoundland Insectarium.
- Explore the Bay of Islands by Sea, a stunning freshwater fjord surrounded by ancient mountains and dense forest in every direction.
- Stop by Corner Brook's community museum, a former jailhouse, now home to the fascinating history of the Corner Brook-Bay of Islands area.
- Sample the local arts and culture scene. Visit a local gallery or stop by the Rotary Arts Centre.
- Feast on cod tongues and scrunchions, fish and brewis, jiggs dinner, and bakeapple or partridgeberry jam — mouthwatering, yet unique, culinary delights that you won't find anywhere else.

Charlottetown

Historic and beautiful, abounding with stunning landscapes, outdoor activities, culinary delights, unique local products, welcoming people, and authentic experiences, Prince Edward Island's small size is also one of its greatest assets, guaranteeing you're never far from your next adventure! Explore the city of Charlottetown by foot and discover a delightful variety of galleries, boutiques and restaurants, where you'll feast on some of the best food in the world. Enjoy one of many shore excursions to secluded beaches or championship-calibre golf courses. Visit the home of the beloved fictional character, Anne of Green Gables. Considered by many to be Canada's hidden gem, Prince Edward Island will charm you and leave you wanting more.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Take in the rich breathtaking colours of the Island. The greens are deeper, the yellows are brighter. Even the soil is redder, making humble dirt roads look like rolling red carpets.
- Go sailing or hit the trails. Explore the Island's tip-to-tip hiking and biking trails.
- Hit the beach! PEI's beaches are the warmest north of Florida. The sand is so fine it sings when you walk on it.
- When it comes to food, Charlottetown offers everything from steak to sushi. And the lobster is an absolute must! (When in season, of course.)
- Tee off where the PGA pros play. PEI is Canada's number one golf destination.
- Travel back to 1864 — when Canada's forefathers gathered to unite our glorious nation — with an enjoyable and educational guided walk through the beautiful historic streets of Charlottetown.
- Go oyster fishing or try your hand at lobster fishing and experience the Island through the eyes of its locals.
- Named best ice cream in the world, enjoy a cone of COWS ice cream, famous the world over.
- No trip to PEI would be complete without a visit to the home of Anne of Green Gables, the orphaned red-haired girl from Lucy Maud Montgomery's novels.

#3 of Top Ten Islands Overall

Sydney

There's a reason so many prominent cruise lines sail into Sydney, the historic capital of Cape Breton Island. Located on the northeastern tip of Nova Scotia, on Canada's east coast, and connected to the mainland by the Canso Causeway, Cape Breton Island has established itself as one of the top scenic and touring destinations in the world. Explore and experience all that the island has to offer. Take part in outdoor adventures, including golf, hiking, cycling, boating, fishing and whale watching. Learn about and enjoy the area's rich Gaelic, Aboriginal and Acadian cultures and histories. And take in the island's awe-inspiring land and seascapes. You'll never want to leave!

INVESTMENTS

Construction of a 2nd berth in Sydney is expected to be completed by the 2018 fall season.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience life in an 18th century fortified town at the Fortress of Louisbourg National Historic site, the largest historical reconstruction in North America.
- Sailing, boating or kayaking on Bras d'Or Lake — Canada's big and beautiful inland sea. A world-renowned UNESCO designated site.
- Celebrate Cape Breton's Gaelic history at the Highland Village Museum, a living history museum and cultural centre.
- Grab your camera and head out on the Cabot Trail, one of the most scenic and breathtaking drives in the world.
- Visit the Joan Harriss Cruise Pavilion, home of the world's largest fiddle.
- Head to Baddeck and learn about the life and work of scientist, inventor and humanitarian Alexander Graham Bell.
- Head underground and take a tour of the Cape Breton Miner's Museum that pays tribute to the region's long and rich history of coal mining.
- Enjoy a relaxing walking tour of the Colonial Town of Old Sydney, founded by Loyalists who fled the American Revolution.
- Take in the history and culture of the Mi'kmaq with a walk down the Goat Island trail, complete with interpretive panels and animators.

Saint John

Gateway to the famous Bay of Fundy, the historic seaport of Saint John, New Brunswick, is bustling with activity. Surrounded by many natural wonders, the vibrant city of Saint John is alive with history and culture. Pick up a unique, local memento at the Saint John City Market — the oldest continuing public market in North America. Watch the phenomena of the reversing rapids, visit the New Brunswick Museum or take a few hours and explore the St. Martins sea caves. A world of eco-adventures is just begging to be discovered in our region. Don't leave without a visit to the Hopewell Rocks and beautiful Fundy National Park. Saint John, or as the locals call it, Saint Awesome!

HIGHLIGHTS

- Perfectly located in the heart of uptown Saint John, New Brunswick's two new and modern cruise terminals allow passengers to start exploring within minutes of disembarkation.
- The Hopewell Rocks are a must see, where you can take a walk on the ocean floor at low tide!
- The Bay of Fundy is known for the highest tides on the planet. The amount of water in one tide cycle would fill and then empty the Grand Canyon!
- Explore the St. Martins sea caves. Tucked in spectacular red sandstone cliffs, the St. Martins sea caves are natural wonders created by tidal erosion.
- Shop the Saint John City Market. Find a unique, local memento at the oldest continuing public market in North America.
- Visit the New Brunswick Museum. Discover our region's heritage, examine fossils from a unique geological past and see the Bay of Fundy tides in action.
- Explore a billion years of the earth's history with a visit to Stonehammer Geopark, the first North American geological park, a designated UNESCO site.

Eastport

Consisting entirely of islands, the City of Eastport is the easternmost city in the United States. Eastport embodies America at its most natural, most serene, and most inviting. Surrounded by the waters of Passamaquoddy Bay, it is the city where the sun first rises. From the shores of Eastport you can watch deer, eagles, seals, and whales play in their natural environment. Eastport offers a storied, historic waterfront. With 28 buildings on the National Register of Historic Places, the downtown area is an easy walk from both Breakwater and Fish Piers. Here you will find a thriving arts community with many unique galleries and artisan shops, as well as restaurants offering fresh, locally caught seafood.

INVESTMENTS

The Breakwater Terminal Pier in downtown Eastport began reconstruction in 2015 and reopened in July 2017.

Installation of a new $200,000 float system.

The Eastport Port Authority built a new Welcome Center in 2014 to house the offices of the Port Authority, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, and the Chamber of Commerce, in addition to public restrooms and a conference space — all in one place.

Bar Harbor

Adventure, romance, a magnificent rock-bound coastline and soaring granite cliffs — experience the unique charm of Bar Harbor. Surrounded by Acadia National Park and located at the edge of the sea, we have welcomed visitors for more than one hundred years, and now we welcome you! Not exactly a well-guarded secret, yet not too crowded, Bar Harbor is a Maine/New England vacation spot beyond compare. So grab your family and head to the park, explore the bay, hike, bike or snowshoe the Carriage Trails, and take in the local festivals. No matter the season, Bar Harbor is the perfect spot to have fun, relax, stay fit, and make great memories.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Warm summer days and cool summer evenings await in Bar Harbor, the largest town on Mount Desert Island (pop. 5235).
- The Island is one of the largest on the U.S. east coast (28 miles across), with more than 127 miles of hiking trails, the scenic 27-mile Park Loop Road, and 45 miles of carriage roads.
- The entrance to Acadia National Park, home to over 50,000 acres of protected nature, is less than a mile from downtown Bar Harbor.
- At 1532 feet, Cadillac Mountain is the first place to see the sun rise in the continental U.S., from October 7 to March 6.
- Somes Sound is the only fjord in the northeastern U.S.
- Three island towns — Bar Harbor, Tremont, and Mount Desert — have lighting ordinances to protect the quality of the night skies.
- The Hancock County-Bar Harbor Airport is 12 miles away, and the Bangor International Airport is 50 miles away.
- Over 125 cruise ships arrive in Bar Harbor every year.
- More than 5,316,000 lobsters are enjoyed every year.
- Inspired by its natural beauty, past prominent visitors to the island, such as the Astors, Rockefellers, Vanderbilts, Carnegies, and Morgans, soon became summer residents known as “rusticators.”

PORT SERVICES AND AMENITIES

Tendering for foreign flagged vessels is available at Harbor Place. U.S. flagged vessels may dock or tender at the municipal dock.

Portland

Lighthouses and lobsters, waves crashing on the rocky shore — these are the enduring images that come to mind when thinking of Maine's classic seacoast. In Greater Portland, you'll experience the quintessential Maine coast in perfect harmony with urban sophistication that's creating quite a stir! Downtown Portland is a historic seacoast town with a funky vibe, working waterfront, loads of galleries, hundreds of one-of-a-kind shops, breweries, concert venues, and award-winning restaurants that serve everything from classic lobster rolls to exotic nouvelle cuisine. Explore our Downtown Arts District, Historic Old Port, parks and distinctive neighborhoods.

INVESTMENTS

Portland Ocean Terminal:

Installation of a new fender system along with a comfort centre for guests and crew.

Ocean Gateway:

A place for the crew to relax with couches and Wi-Fi.

Both locations will have an area for the cruise lines to sell tours that have not been filled using the ship voucher program.

Future investments will be made to ensure the largest ships can dock at the Ocean Gateway Port.
